

The Lash Commandments

1. You should always dress to impress. The dress code is listed in full on our website and on the back of this guide.
2. All are welcome whether male, female, gay, straight, bi or any permutation thereof.
3. You are beautiful no matter what your shape or size.
4. Respect all other patrons and organisers. Disrespectful behaviour will lead to you being asked to leave.
5. No photography or video capture permitted. Our official photographer will be taking photos for the website. You can download copies of your photo from our website.
6. You must ask to play politely.
7. You may not touch without permission.
8. You will use a safe word.
9. You will not intrude on to someone else's play without permission. Watching from a distance is permitted.
10. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to ask one of the Lash team or a member of Roissy Workshops.
11. Most importantly, please remember this is meant to be fun so don't take yourself too seriously!
12. We welcome scanty or topless outfits, however full frontal nudity is not permitted (boobs and moobs fantastic, bits & bobs - keep 'em covered!)

Dress Code

Leather, rubber, PVC, lingerie, cross-dressing and character dressing (e.g. as a doctor, or school ma'am etc.) Character dressing is often the least expensive option, and we encourage this through giving each night a different theme. Smart suits are also acceptable if you don't have any fetish or alternative gear. Stripping to the waist is fine, but full frontal Nudity is against licensing laws and would get the venue into trouble.
